Make a difference to families of the Armed Forces this Christmas

SOMETIMES EVEN THE STRONGEST NEED HELP. SSAFA, the Armed Forces charity supports the person behind the uniform; every year helping more than 73,000 people from the forces family to get on their feet; those currently serving, reserves, veterans and their dependents.

Giving hope, help and personal support to those at any stage in their military career, SSAFA ensures no one's service is ever forgotten.

SSAFA needs funding to continue to deliver their charitable services. You can make a real difference by purchasing your Christmas gift from their unique 'Gifts that Serve' this year.

Your donation can help fund Forcesline - their confidential, free helpline for veterans and their families. Or you can gift a short break activity holiday to a Forces family, with children who have disabilities or special needs. These are just some of the gifts you can give that help SSAFA to continue to support the Armed Forces family.

Why not send a friend or loved one a truly special gift that will really make a difference this Christmas?
