Stars of the 70s and 80s are back for summer!

WANT A VALENTINE'S DAY GIFT to rock your loved ones socks off? Then look no further than Heritage Live events presented by GCE Live.

This year's six-show extravaganza is on at Kenwood House on London's Hampstead Heath on 14-16 June and Audley End in Saffron Walden, Essex on 12-14 July.

Friday 12th July sees a sensational triple-bill of 1980s icons, headlined by one of the most classic groups of the era, The Human League, with support from ABC and Belinda Carlisle.

Then finishing-off in the beautiful grounds of Audley End with a once in a lifetime triple-header of Disco, headlined by all-time greats, The Jacksons, with support from Kool & The Gang and Boney M.

Celebrate this iconic group's 50th anniversary on Sunday 15th July, with founding members Jermaine, Tito, Jackie and Marlon as they continue to wow audiences across the world as one of the biggest bands of all-time.

Bringing the best of live music to the most beautiful of outdoor settings at some of England's finest country houses. Full disabled access and free carer tickets are available.
