Finance solutions to keep cash flowing

RUNNING YOUR OWN BUSINESS can bring a great sense of achievement and satisfaction. Nothing beats seeing new customers coming on board and watching your business grow.

But managing any business also brings challenges. Inevitably, one of these is cash flow. Paying for goods or materials upfront, meeting running costs and fixed outgoings, paying staff – all of these can be difficult if your customers haven't paid you.

Some business customers may insist on payment terms of 60 or 90 days, while others may not pay reliably on time. It's a fact of life that you can never be entirely sure when those vital funds will come in.

Cash is the lifeblood of any business and without it, growth aspirations can quickly become frustrated. Worse, if your cash remains tied up in unpaid invoices then you may even struggle to survive.

However, there are solutions out there that many businesses are taking advantage of. One of these is invoice finance. This allows you to release cash quickly into your business by converting the value of unpaid invoices into ready working capital.

Instead of waiting around for funds to arrive or spending valuable time chasing payments, invoice finance can help you access up to 90% of your full invoice value straightaway.

At Aldermore, we specialise in offering finance solutions to help businesses achieve their aspirations, lending over £2.9 billion each year to help fuel growth. We can help you turn your ambitions into a reality. More immediately, we can help you keep cash flowing to manage the ups and downs of doing business.

City lawyers are taking charge of their careers the easy way

BECOMING A TOP CITY LAWYER is a dream for many, but the reality of what accompanies it can be a nightmare. Partnership was once the pinnacle of a solicitor's career; today it often means politics, pressure and unfair remuneration. Only those at the very top truly reap the rewards and, while getting there might be attainable, lawyers are awakening to a better way of working – one that puts them in charge, without going it alone or waiting for others to retire.

Keystone Law is a new breed of law firm that is disrupting the industry like never before. And both lawyers and clients are loving it! Through smart technology, Keystone enables established lawyers to work independently with all the support of a traditional firm, without the politics and boundaries. Gone are the days of needing to be on that 6am train. At Keystone, every decision is yours to make – from where you work, to who you work with. With an award-winning support team behind you, the freedom to do what you love and 300 fellow senior lawyers alongside you, you will never feel more liberated!

What does it take to succeed at Keystone Law?

Keystone lawyers have their own client base or the entrepreneurial flair to build one. With solid commercial acumen, they want to be rewarded fairly for what they bring to the table.

If you're looking for a better work-life balance and to take greater ownership over the book of contacts that you have worked so hard to build, then Keystone could be your perfect next career move.
