An original Queen Victoria Gold Half Sovereign – a genuine 130-year-old rarity

DURING QUEEN VICTORIA'S REIGN, more than twice as many gold sovereigns were issued than half sovereigns. Of all sovereign types ever issued, the half sovereign accounts for less than 18%, making the half sovereign five times rarer than its sovereign counterpart. Out of all the gold ever used to strike sovereign coins, less than 9% has been used to produce half sovereigns. This fact therefore makes your original Queen Victoria half sovereign even more desirable. It comes as no surprise that these rare strikes still command such high demand with collectors over 130 years later!

Struck in solid 22-carat gold

Featuring the heraldic shield design, the half sovereign is a sought-after gold coin of this great monarch's reign. In the 200th anniversary of her birth, collectors will be particularly interested in coin rarities from her lengthy reign. Our experts have managed to acquire a very limited quantity which are available now, but we expect a fast sell out.
