Tap into the super-sharp Razer Blade laptop

TECH LOVERS; the sleekest, most powerful gaming laptops on the market have arrived just in time for Christmas.

The Razer Blade 15 is the world's smallest gaming laptop ever made. But despite its slim design and small footprint, the Razer Blade 15 has an amazing edge-to-edge screen with options for either a lightning fast 240Hz Full HD display or a beautiful 4K OLED touch display with 100% Adobe RGB colour gamut for rich accurate colours and vivid images.

With the latest 9th Gen Intel® Core™ i7 6 core processor at its heart, and graphics powered by NVIDIA® GeForce RTX™, the Razer Blade 15 excels in power and portability.

The model comes with 16Gb of system memory and a choice of SSD options up to 512Gb, but both can be upgraded for more memory and higher storage capacity. Powerful ultra-thin, tuned stereo speakers and an RGB backlit keyboard with customisable per-key lighting complete the set-up.

Also available is the Razer Blade 15 Base Model. Powered by the latest NVIDIA® GeForce RTX™ or GTX™ graphic cards and with dual-storage for even more room, the Blade 15 Base is the perfect entry-level system for those wanting a little less power but a bit more storage on the go.

Feel the difference of Razer's premium quality CNC aluminium case, feast your eyes on the OLED display and enjoy the superlative power of NVIDIA RTX graphics in a svelte, sleek chassis that oozes style. ## Spa gifts for men

SPAS MAY HAVE A HISTORIC REPUTATION for being just for women. However, spa travel experts Spabreaks.com are finding an increased demand from men to create relaxing experiences tailored just for them.

Traditionally, men visited spas incidentally, either going with a partner or having the odd massage while on holiday. However the increased conversation around wellbeing is seeing more men take time out at spas for themselves.

As a result, many spas have responded to this by updating their style, spa treatments and experiences in favour of those that embrace the comfort and wellbeing needs of men as well as women. Spabreaks.com has also made it easier for those looking to treat the men in their life with spa experiences and gift vouchers to suit everybody.

From spa treatments that combat the skin-damaging effects of pollution and shaving, to massages that ease muscles aching from sport or sitting at a desk, Spabreaks.com will have the perfect gifting solution.
