The Coronation of King Charles III is a once-in-a-lifetime event, and gifting a piece of fine jewellery to a loved one, or yourself, is a timeless way to celebrate.

Using gold and jewels instead of paint and canvas, Elizabeth Gage has become an acclaimed artist, internationally renowned for her craftsmanship and distinctive work, and recognised as one of the world's most creative jewellery designers.

Awarded an MBE in 2017 for her artistry, her work features in the Victoria and Albert Museum as part of its permanent jewellery collection. Each piece is handmade in Britain by master craftsmen, and during the Coronation weekend a new commemorative Coronation Pin will be revealed.

Today's Elizabeth Gage designs will be tomorrow's heirlooms, so there's no better way to celebrate this or any other special occasion. Discover the collection at elizabeth-gage.com, or visit the London showroom at 5 West Halkin Street, London SW1X 8JA.
