Look after your estate

People add many things to their list of New Year's Resolutions, like joining a gym or finding a new job, but there's one very important thing which often gets overlooked and that is writing a Will.

If you don't have a Will the rules of intestacy will decide what happens to your estate and this means your property, possessions and money may not pass to who you'd want them to. Even if you already have a Will, when was the last time it was reviewed to make sure it still matches your personal circumstances?

Make writing a Will your New Year's Resolution and speak to a fully trained and insured Member of The Society of Will Writers to receive friendly, up-to-date, and professional advice.

Contact the office today on 01522 687 888 or visit www.willwriters.com/listing to find a member in your area.
