To imagine India is to picture Rajasthan. From Jaipur to Jodhpur, few places in the world pack such a powerful cultural punch through festivals, architecture, people and food.

Begin with the magnificent Taj Mahal in Agra, Uttar Pradesh, before taking a deep dive into Rajasthan to explore some of the region's most vibrant cities. This holiday also takes time to visit some of the less well known rural areas and offers the chance to spot the graceful leopards of Jawahar, amazingly, live in harmony with the local shepherding community.

Expert guides provide depth and insight to your bespoke experiences before delivering you to accommodation with a real sense of place.

For the full experience, add a few days at Ranthambore Tiger Reserve. Deciduous forests and lakes sit below rocky ridges and the remains of a 10th-century fort, which has been reclaimed by the wilderness, provides both shelter for wildlife and a unique beauty to the park. Once the scene of royal hunting parties, Ranthambore National Park is now one of the best places to see tigers in the wild.
