Britain's leading magazine for architectural products, technology and trends

ARCHITECTURE MAGAZINE

Architecture Magazine has been at the forefront of the architecture industry for more than 20 years, with a long history of providing product and technology news and information to Britain's leading architects. As the number one product magazine in the sector, and with an audience primed to use our journal when deciding product specifications and selecting suppliers for projects, Architecture Magazine provides suppliers with an unrivalled medium to drive product sales and brand awareness. Captivating our influential readers with engaging industry news, product and technology reviews and detailed project case studies, Architecture Magazine serves to highlight the very best of the industry.

Explore the world of architecture through pages of pioneering design concepts, brought to life by the best in the industry.

Advertising in Architecture Magazine enables you to reach a huge audience of architecture professionals.

Target Readership Profile

The trade journal is delivered as a printed magazine every month to over 2,500 subscribers, including key UK practices, and is available to pick up for free at trade shows. Architecture Magazine is also available on App Stores with over 11,000 current live app users and 30,000 digital edition readers via web browsers. In addition, the magazine is emailed to our database of 31,000+ giving a total reach of up to 82,000+ active readers.

Our professional readership includes architects, interior designers and product designers, as well as those working in the hospitality sector, on private residences and commercial projects such as public buildings, galleries and offices. Furthermore, readers can access the Architecture Magazine app via Apple or Android.

Our sister publication, The Architecture Yearbook provides a valuable source of information for professionals throughout the year.

Advertiser Testimonials

"Architecture Magazine is regarded as the most important magazine in the architecture and construction industry. Firstly, it explains in a simple and understandable way the latest trends that are shaping reality. Good use of images, well edited and a great, eye-catching cover!

Second, the articles are very informative and vary in length, so you can choose something for yourself if you have a moment to spare.

Thirdly, the range of topics covered is a delight. We are not exaggerating when we say that you will simply get smarter and better informed with each issue.

AM is excellent in every way!"

Features List

The spotlight features cover a variety of products, projects and design disciplines. Within each issue we aim to highlight some of the best designs in the industry and showcase how they are being applied successfully within designers' projects. The issues are broken down into specialised features, which are complimented by our regular spots including industry news, product innovations and all the highlights from the shows in the design calendar. There is also an editor's choice selection, which is curated per issue, giving new talent the chance to showcase their work.
