Home Cleaning Products With A Conscience

Standard cleaning products typically have an ingredient list packed with chemicals and irritants, harmful to the planet, as well as being potentially dangerous to our skin and respiratory systems.

Ecolzone's responsible, chemical-and-cruelty-free cleaning brand which uses plant-based ingredients that are kinder to you, better for the planet yet still potent enough to kill germs, remove stains and leave every part of your house sparkling.

Each of Ecolzone's products - there are over 100 in the range across laundry, dishwashing and household cleaning - is made from eco-friendly ingredients, with many available in bulk sizes to minimise packaging and plastic. The brand also manufactures biodegradable bin bags, as well as enzymatic drain-cleaning sticks.

Ecolzone's reusable, hypoallergenic EcoBalls are cult favourites that eliminate the need for laundry detergent, saving on packaging waste and preventing unnecessary chemicals from ending up in the water system. EcoBalls are filled with mineral pellets to clean your clothes and boast the Allergy UK seal of approval for even the most sensitive skin types. They can be thrown in your washing machine for up to 1,000 cycles.

Ecolzone's newest release? A Multi Purpose Cleaning Paste, designed to clean a variety of surfaces from the bathroom sink to the barbecue.
