Crocodile Glass Verandas

One of the great pleasures of the summer is the chance to enjoy a spot of alfresco entertaining - but changeable weather forecasts can often put outdoor plans at risk. Adding a Crocodile Glass Veranda to your home will not only add value, but also give you the chance to completely relax while you enjoy your garden.

This unique extension brings the outdoors in: a solid, open structure with a glass roof, it creates beautiful cover, a spot of shade and protection from the wind, creating a warm space to spend time with your family, hang out with friends, or simply unwind.

Constructed using powder-coated aluminium, Crocodile Glass Verandas are totally maintenance free, create extra light and space, and can be used to savour your garden all year round - as well as looking enviously sky-high.
