Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex

Mankind's exploration of our solar system has been a source of fascination for generations. Located on Florida's Space Coast, under an hour from Orlando, Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex brings to life the epic story of the space race.

Throughout its long history, the spaceport has played a significant part, including launching the first American astronaut during the Apollo programme.

A full day of fun and inspiration awaits visitors to the complex, including the Heroes & Legends exhibition, featuring the US Astronaut Hall of Fame, breathtaking Imax films and the immersive experience Planet Play.

Visitors can also enjoy the thrilling new Gateway: The Deep Space Launch Complex, which explores the future of interplanetary travel - and with several rocket launches planned during 2024 and beyond, you may even get to see one first hand.
